	For Action
1) Apologies Apologies were received from Paul Derrien (PD) 2) Declarations of Interest JC declared that he is on the board of the Dorchester Municipal Charities which includes the Whetstones Alms house nearest to the proposed development site at the Old Tennis Courts. 3) Minutes of the meetings held on 20th January 2021 It was proposed that the first sentence of Item 6 (v) was amended to read as follows: IG reported that the garages and Car park at Friary Lane are included in the 2020 Draft Local Plan as a 'developable area'. All agreed that this amendment should be made and the minutes were agreed as a true record of that meeting. 4) Matters arising i) Press release BT reported that the press release that had been sent to the Dorset Echo last month still had not been printed. As a result BT also sent copies to a number of other media outlets including Keep 106, who contacted BT to interview him about the Tennis Court project and the DACLT in general. 5) Update on the application for planning permission for the Tennis court site. James Weir, the Conservation officer at Dorset Council, has now agreed that the archaeology plan put forward is acceptable for the Tennis Court site. Rob McDonald, the planning officer at Dorset Council, assigned to the Tennis Court application, is to let TM have the proposed decision date as soon as it is set. SW informed the meeting that he has had an email from Becky Smyth (Excello Law) to confirm that the Option and Lease documents for the Tennis Court site have now been agreed with Places for People (PfP) and Dorchester Town Council (DTC) and these will now be sent out for signature.	Admin

6a) Potential Development Sites – List update.
The board went through the site list and updated as follows:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Marks and Spencer building: IG has identified that a group from Weymouth is considering this property for conversion to social housing. He will continue to try and get more information and see if the DACLT can assist.</li> </ul>	Ian Gosling
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Betting Shop/Bakery site: It was agreed that this site should be removed from the list.</li> </ul>	Admin
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Nat West Building: TM has written again to Nat West Head office asking for them to consider donating this building to the town.</li> </ul>	Admin
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Vespasian House: It was agreed that this site should be removed from the list.</li> </ul>	Admin
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Former Army Hospital building: AC is to continue to follow up with the owner of this site.</li> </ul>	Alistair Chisholm
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Garages at Ackerman Road: TM is to contact the Co-op again regarding this site to see if there is any change in their view on selling.</li> </ul>	Tricia Mitchell
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Charles Street and Fairfield Car Parks: It was agreed that these two sites should be removed from the list.</li> </ul>	Admin
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Princes House building: There are three floors of offices as well as shops, all of which are now empty. Dorset Council were tenants of the site not the owners. TM has established that the title deeds are registered to a company in the Channel Islands.</li> </ul>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Gibbs and Dandy Site: ES said the site has been sold but she is unable to obtain the purchaser's details at this stage as the legal process of the sale is still ongoing. She will update once the new owner is confirmed.</li> </ul>	Emma Scott
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Dorchester Prison site: A change of use application is currently going through a consultation period. ES has had contact with the applicants, who state that they are not expecting the site to be sold and developed for at least a couple of years.</li> </ul>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Former Stable, Glyde Path Road: It was felt that this site is too small and too expensive for the DACLT to pursue. It is to be removed from the list.</li> </ul>	Admin
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Friary Lane Site: This site is not owned by Dorset Council but by Edwards and Keeping Accountants. The Garages are in use and there are no plans to build on this site. Rupert Edwards one of the proprietors of Edwards and Keeping is also a Director of the Mill Street Housing Society (MSHS). TM is to contact him to see if the DACLT and MSHS could develop this site in partnership.</li> </ul>	Tricia Mitchell
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Wessex Water Site: TM has written to them and asked if they would consider giving the DACLT part of this large site for social housing.</li> </ul>
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The Old Brewhouse building, Brewery Square: TM is to contact Tony Foot from Maxgate properties to see if there are any opportunities that the DACLT can explore on this site. AC to give TM the relevant contact details.</li> </ul>	Tricia Mitchell Alistair Chisholm
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Top of Town House: This site is to be removed from the list as conversion has begun by a developer.</li> </ul>	Admin
